E-newsletter | October 24 2014

Hello again,
The Chancellor, George Osborne, was in Broxtowe today visiting a couple of businesses run by women in Beeston before attending a large meeting to celebrate the work of women - scroll down for more details.
Have a great weekend,
As ever,

Poppy Appeal Launch

The Royal British Legion has launched its annual Poppy Appeal. I attended tonight's event at the Legion's club in Beeston where the first poppy was sold by our Mayor, Stan Hepinstall.

Yesterday, I was pleased to support the national launch at the Cenotaph, as the Minister for Veterans.

George Osborne visit

Chancellor, George Osborne came to Beeston this lunchtime. George paid a visit to two great businesses run by women on Chilwell Road.

George had a long chat with Emma Corbett, co owner of Relish, about VAT and other issues before buying some cheese.

We then crossed the road and visited the Local not Global Deli where George met owner Jo Thomson and was impressed at the range of local produce that Jo sells.

As you might imagine there was much talk about the affect of the tram works on business and our hopes for the benefits the tram promises for traders throughout Beeston.

Women making a difference!

George Osborne was joined by Women's Minister and Education Secretary Nicky Morgan and Beeston born Baroness Tina Stowell, who is Leader of the House of Lords, for an event to celebrate women who are making a difference.

My thanks to a number of local women who are running businesses, championing community campaigns or leading local charities, who came along.

Beeston's Pearson Centre had quite a day - after hosting our event they played host to a Broxtowe Labour party with Dennis Skinner

Result! Bus sorted in Kimberley and Nuthall

Yesterday I was contacted by an 82 year old resident in Nuthall who was understandably concerned by Trent Barton's withdrawal of bus services serving large parts of Nuthall and Kimberley next week. The week-day changes are a result of road closures in Eastwood.

I am delighted that we were able to persuade Notts County Council to fill the gap with a free shuttle service which will run from Monday to Friday next week from the Phoenix Park Tram stop to Kimberley Library and back and will operate half hourly between 6:30 am and 6:30pm.

Trent Barton's services should be back to normal by November 1st.
