Working hard for Broxtowe

May 26 2016

Get the facts, hear the arguments and join in Broxtowe's EU debate.

Hello again,
I have organised a debate on whether we should stay in or leave the EU. Douglas Carswell MP (UKIP) will be leading the Brexit charge with my colleague and Solicitor General, Robert Buckland MP making the case for Stronger In.

The debate is next Thursday June 2nd at the Pearson Centre, Nuart Road in Beeston from 6pm until 8pm. Kate Godfrey who is an organiser for Stronger In and Nottingham businessman Nigel Baxter from Leave are the two other guest speakers. I am very pleased that John Hess, BBC East Midlands former political editor has agreed to chair the event. This will be a debate - with contributions from the audience as I am very keen you give your views and ask questions to the various speakers.

The debate is open to everyone of all political persuasions and none! Please come along and invite your family, friends and neighbours. I hope to see you next Thursday June 2nd at the Pearson Centre in Beeston.

Have a good Bank Holiday weekend,

As ever,
Anna

Want to get involved?

In the run up to the Referendum on Thursday June 23 I will be involved in a number of Stronger In events in and around Broxtowe. If, like me, you believe we are stronger, safer and better off in Europe, then please contact me and join the Stronger In campaign.
